The Word Made Flesh

John 1:14 King James Version
14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

John 1:11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not. 12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

Christ came unto those who said they believe in God, but they did not accept Him as their Lord and Savior because they did not believe in His authority given by God. They did not believe that He was the only begotten Son of God because they expected Him to come in as a King royally treated as are the kings of this world. But God sent Christ in by a different way, being humbled to keep Him alive until His appointed time. He had to live as an earthly son showing obedience to the Word of His Father spoken in Heaven. Christ was Spirit and of the nature of God, before this world ever was. Now He points the way for all to follow Him in obedience to the Words of our Father in Heaven. To get back to God, we must be reborn of His nature tearing down the old man nature of sin in our life, as we abide in His truth.

God has let us know that Christ was not born of the will of man, but of God. Thus the angels gave Mary and Joseph God’s Word of how He was to be born.

John 1:13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

Jesus Christ is the Word of God that was made flesh and dwelt among us. As God had spoken years before, His Word now becomes light as they are fulfilled in the appointed time and season to come forth by God. We must allow His Word to become flesh in our life, as we live of Him in our obedience and submission to His Truth.

When God makes a promise or speaks of anything that shall be; He has already planted it as a seed to come forth in the earth as it already is in Heaven. No man knows the time or the hour that it will be developed or brought to light for all to see in the natural realm, but we are certain it will happen as surely as God has spoken it.

John 3:21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

He that does what God’s Word has spoken as he follows truth, will fulfill God’s true wisdom, which is light to all who will receive and believe by doing as He has instructed. God instructs us how to bring into manifestation the works we are appointed to do under Christ. Our works always show through the deeds that are manifested, to be of God or self-will.

Christ came full of grace and truth.

He came giving access to the Father’s storehouse of abundance to each person, who will believe in the Word spoken by the Father in Heaven.

Grace is freely giving of His storehouse; not selling to gain profit. Christ never sold not one word of the Kingdom of God for self-profit. He gave from the heart in a willing spirit as He submitted His life into the Father’s will. God’s grace covers all that we need as we live His Word.

His grace is filled with acts of kindness and good-will toward all who will receive Him. We can see God’s redemptive mercy in His grace and in His nature that brings the pleasure of joy unto the recipient who enters His peace.

Ephesians 2:15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace: 16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

In living for God; the enemy is defeated and put under foot in our obedience to a higher power. Jesus has formed the Jew and the Gentile into one new body called the spiritual body of God as; the church. This being made up of all from every nation, who will accept Him. He has taken our old nature away of pleasing the world, as we live the Word of Truth of God under His righteousness. It is Christ who gives us one new nature that pleases and unites us with God, as He speaks His truths for all to follow. In hearing His truth we are being protected from pagan worship of corruption and distractions of this world that lead us away from truth.

In the Old Testament and New Testament the Jews misinterpreted the law as they misunderstood its purpose set by God. This brought confusion into the mix of Jews who thought they each were the set called group. One group lived under the law of Moses, and the other lived by faith.

But under forgiven grace we are all forgiven for our sins against God’s truths as this was all necessary to awaken us from the deceptions of this world that holds us in bondage away from His truth.

Colossians 1:20 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. 21 And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled 22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight:

Christ had a purpose in all of the works that He has done for our benefit. His Word is pure, and cannot be confused with what others speak. Anytime God’s Word is unfulfilled in a person’s life, it is because they have heard or listened to too many other inaccurate voices outside of Truth. Truth done in the way of righteousness set by Christ is the order that God defines our life by in Him.
He recognizes the set and sealed blood of Jesus over the sinners life who repents and recognizes sin in his own life continuing to follow righteousness.

On our job, we must pray before we enter to mix with others who may bear a different spirit not of His truth, which is not governed by God. Our work place is not only a place for us to work to earn wages, but it is a place to surrender our heart unto God first, that we may serve His will to be done in the right spirit of truth as we serve others. As we follow Christ; every weapon that is formed against us is to show us a better way of truth as God reveals Himself to us in understanding His Word. He directs us to beat our weapons into plow shares to keep sin from hardening our heart.

Leviticus 19:31 Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the Lord your God.

Familiar spirits are those who have a thorough knowledge of what you are seeking as you answer simple but tricky questions, that reveal your inner thoughts. Professionals know how to go about it without your even knowing that you are giving them answers into your life. Such individuals operate off of deceptions for money and self-gain as they speak lies and you believe them. God does not uphold soothsayers who say it is of God and He has not spoken it. A soothsayer is one who claims to foretell events not spoken of God’s truth.

God’s Truth stands all by itself. No man knows the hour or the time it shall be fulfilled, but know for certain; it will happen in God’s time; not man’s.

Matthew 24:36 But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

That day can be anything that God has spoken that shall come to past. No man knows God’s set time for events even of the return of Christ. All is spoken in eternity; so its timing is set by God only in the earth. No angels even know His will to bring it forth and make it known. In expectation it is yet unfulfilled and in darkness to all, but we must believe in His Words. From the moment that God speaks; it becomes a day that must be fulfilled; but in God’s time and in His appointed season that only He knows. So He may take as long as He desires to fulfill even until thousands of years; to benefit man with grace until he it deems necessary to move.

1 John 2:4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

Many will come and say that they know Jesus, but they will not keep His commandments in their heart. Their works will speak for itself. If we do not see the works associated with His righteousness, then they are none of His, especially if the works are not being fulfilled of God’s Truths. You may hear them speak one thing, and see them do another that is not fulfilling His righteousness as Christ fulfills all truth in our life as we follow Him. We must continue to bear one another up in prayer and truth as we live of God’s Word. God knows the difference if we deviate from following His will to be done. He is the living Word that we all must live, which is always being fulfilled as we live it with God’s love and compassion. So the more we learn of God, we see that God is truth; Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Truth that is sent into our life that we may live His truth through the body of Jesus who is truth and the way of rightly serving His truth.

Jesus said I am the way…..

John 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

He is the only way we can get back to Heaven in eternal life.

John 10:1 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

Christ is set as the door of the sheepfold of God’s Kingdom. Unless we come in by Him, and in the way of His rightly serving God’s truth; we are not recognized if our name is not written in the Lamb’s Book of life.
Revelation 21:27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Not believing God’s Word calls Him a liar, as we refuse to live by His every Word. These Words are spoken to every nation around the world.

Will you please try to answer the call to salvation in Christ that you may be written in the Lamb’s book of life? We are the Lamb’s that are written therein as Christ Himself keeps record of our life on earth under salvation. Those who refuse to live God’s Truth will bear a different record under condemnation, if they refuse salvation under Him and their name may be missing..

Mighty God and Father of All Creation,
I surrender my life to you this day. I ask Jesus to come into my heart to heal me of all that has kept me in bondage. I ask forgiveness for all of my sin as I know that I am a sinner. I repent of all sin in my life under the shed blood of Jesus. Give me your right spirit of Truth to guide me from this day forth into all righteousness. In the mighty name of Jesus I pray. Amen.
